

FOOTHILL RANCH, CA.--- CMC announces restructure of their operations.

Posted: 7/01/2010 @ 08:00 AM

Carr Manufacturing Company (CMC) has announced today that they have begun their restructuring of their manufacturing process. Greg Carraway, COO of CMC states, “we expect to have our restructuring complete by the end of August 2011. By trimming the fat in our production process we can streamline our processes and increase our ability to service our customers.”

Some of the restructuring taking place at CMC involves additional equipment and capabilities as well as personnel changes. “Our customers need a supplier that offers custom services as well as custom products,” adds Greg Carraway.

About CMC.

CMC is a California based corporation specializing in the design and manufacturing of standard and custom assemblies to the electronic, industrial, medical, and military industries. Its unique approach to contract manufacturing allows OEM's to offload their electro-mechanical assembly problems to CMC's experienced staff, thereby allowing the OEM to focus on its core product. Headquartered in Lake Forest, Calif., CMC has over 18 years of combined experience in designing, manufacturing, and supplying various electro-mechanical assembly solutions to the OEM market.
